Happy Mother's Day
Cinco de Mayo, May 5th

Hello

Well, here it is, May already. Boy how times fly when you are having fun. Things are starting to look up. Most, if not all, have our vaccinations. We are starting to get out and socialize. In fact, a couple from our Senior Center, Scott and Peggy Atherly traveled to New York-PA. They did a "Cradle of the Restoration" tour in NY-PA. Loved the Herschel Carrousel Factory Museum in upstate NY. It was OPEN. They even rode the carousel with a functioning 115-year-old Wurlitzer Organ. The National Hall of Fame was amazing. The rest of their trip was visiting family. They said travel was easy, they followed all the rules regarding mask, etc. and had a wonderful time.

Opening:

We are waiting for the Placer County Department of Health for when we can open. I am sure there will be some guidelines to follow. i.e., masks, temperature taking. However, will not be asking for proof of vaccinations.

Happy Birthday: To Terry Spadaro

CALENDAR FOR MAY:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5TH Cinco de Mayo Lunch made by Carol: Chicken Enchiladas, Rice and Beans.
